

Quiz 18.1B

Three charges are arranged along the x-axis as shown.

- Find the magnitude and direction of the electric field at the position x.
- Assume an electron is now located at x. What is the magnitude and direction of the acceleration experienced by the electron (properties of an electron are located on page 1 of your formula sheet).

