Grader: Douglas Miller; dqs@uw.edu Office Hrs: By Appointment Only

SCOPE AND PURPOSE: The focus of this course is the basic analysis of postwar politics in Japan, including on the development of the party system, political parties, and electoral system and elections. It also includes including some brief historical and conceptual background; the prime minister and policymaking, and a particular focus on the pre- and post- the 1990s electoral and administrative reforms. Japan since the early 1990s has experienced perhaps the greatest political changes since the American Occupation (1945-1952). This course will analyze the “nuts and bolts” of Japanese politics using as a theme the questions of how and why these changes have occurred and their implications.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADE:

It is expected that you will have done the reading for the week, before the week's discussions begin [i.e., before Monday's class]. Everyone is also expected to participate in each class session.

- 1) Short answer ID exam: April 14 on weeks 1 and 2--identifying who or what, approximately when, and significance in a paragraph. [15%]
- 2) Essay Exam 1: In-class written exam on April 28 In -class exam on topics for weeks 1-5 [35%]
- 3) Essay Exam 2: a take-home essay [4 pp.] on May 26 concerning topics for weeks 5-9 [40%].
- 4) Class Participation [10%]: quality and frequency throughout the course.

IMPORTANT: PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING ARE NOT TOLERATED IN THIS CLASS!!!!

Whether in-class or take-home exams, exams are written by YOU ALONE. It is NOT a cooperative exercise. Once a question is given out you may not consult with any other student in the class, nor use the words of anyone else in writing unless you cite outside sources (direct quotations should be used sparingly—perhaps a maximum of two per exam) for everything except common knowledge. Other than the 2 short quotations EVERYTHING IN THE EXAM MUST BE IN YOUR OWN WORDS, NO ONE ELSE'S!!!! Penalties for violating these rules will be severe (At a minimum, a zero on the exam and a good chance of failing the course). BE AWARE OF WHAT PLAGIARISM IS AND HOW TO AVOID IT. BE AWARE THAT COOPERATION ON AN INDIVIDUAL EXAMINATION IS CHEATING, AND AVOID IT.

FOR ANY LATE OR EXCUSED WORK: I require documentation. Even if you show up to class with your leg in a cast, bring in written documentation from your doctor or the Health Service. I require this of EVERY excuse to avoid being placed in the uncomfortable position of trying to assess the veracity as well as legitimacy of excuses. You can write me an email saying you are sick and asking to have your assignment postponed. However, provide documentation along with your written request in order to gain better consideration for an excuse.

GRADING AND GRADE APPEALS: We are fortunate to have a grader for this course. Douglas Miller has office hours by appointment only. Please contact him first not me, on anything to do with the grade on your exam. If you disagree with the score you received on an exam, submit a written statement explaining your dispute and hand a copy to both of us along with a copy of your exam. Discuss with your grader first before coming to me. He reserves the right to lower as well as raise your grade after your discussion with him. This written submission must be done within one week after the exam is returned. I will read the appeal after you have discussed it with the grader if he has rejected your appeal for a higher grade.

EMAIL COMMUNICATION WITH US: Please email us only from a uw.edu account. Email communication with a professor and a grader is a FORMAL communication, not an informal one like you text or email your friends. Kindly remember that when writing. Thanks.

GRADUATE STUDENTS: Graduate Students taking the class do not have to do the first, identification, exam; instead of the 2nd in class exam yours will be take-home; and instead of the third exam, the second essay, you must write a research paper on a topic I approve. Please send me your suggestions for paper topic via email with a description of 1)what you want to research 2) why it is significant in Japan's postwar politics 3)and the methods you will do to conduct the research. Page limit on paper=10 pp. Grad students will be graded by me, not the grader.

READINGS: The following book is required but available online. It is indicated in the course outline with author's last name in CAPITAL LETTERS:

GEORGE MULGAN, Aurelia. Power and Pork: The Political Life of a Japanese Politician (Canberra, Australia: ANU E Press and Asia Pacific Press, Australia National University 2006). Free download online at: http://press.anu.edu.au/titles/power_pork_citation/pdf-download/
